

Arts in Education Council of BC Fund

GRANT GUIDELINES 2019-20

Updated: September 4, 2019

About the Fund

The Arts in Education Council of BC Fund offers small grants for educators or schools to support professional development for K-12 educators in British Columbia. These grants can be used to assist in the presentation or attendance of professional development workshops, clinics, or seminars designed to increase the appreciation of the arts for teachers in BC schools.

This fund is a legacy of the Arts in Education Council of BC (AIECBC). ArtStarts hopes to honour the work of the AIECBC through the life of this fund.

Who can apply?

- K-12 educators and school administrators in British Columbia are eligible to apply for this grant.
- Funding cheques for successful applicants will be made out to the school or school district. Exceptions are made on a one-off basis by the ArtStarts staff.

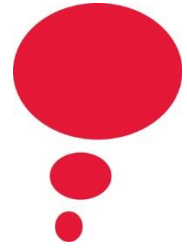

Grant Amount [UPDATED!]

- Individual educators can apply for up to $500 to support their own professional development
- Groups of educators can apply for up to $1,000 to support a professional development event for multiple people within the school or school district

Application process

- There are two application intakes per year: June and December. Upcoming deadlines are listed online at artstarts.com/aiecbc.
- Applications must be submitted before the deadline using the online form provided.
- Grants are distributed by lottery.
- A maximum of one application per school per intake can be submitted.
- Eligible expenses include: materials, supplies, professional fees, transportation costs for presenters/clinicians/artists, registration fees, and professional development workshops.
- Successful applicants will be notified within 2 months of the deadline.

Eligible events must be:

- catered to the professional development of K-12 teachers in BC schools;
- designed to increase the appreciation of the arts; and
- planned to start after the grant deadline and finish before the end of the school year.

Ineligible events:

- ArtStarts Professional Development offerings are not eligible for funding through this grant. Due to conflict of interest issues, ArtStarts cannot help you plan or facilitate a professional development opportunity through this grant.
- As this is a professional development grant for teachers, proposals for projects designed for young people are not eligible.
